To the PUBLIC, New-York, Oct. 16, 1766
IT is now upwards of six Years that I have published a weekly News Paper, under the Title of the New-York Gazette or Weekly Post-Boy, which I have the Pleasure to think has been generally acceptable, and publicly useful: But having now Occasion to alter the Title of my Paper, I hope for the same favourable Reception of the New-York JOURNAL of GENERAL ADVERTISER, that my Paper met with under the former Title; since it will be conducted with the same Spirit, and to the same Ends,—the Suppression of Evil, and the Promotion of public and private Happiness. The Reasons of altering my Title are these, 1st, for the Sake of Distinction, as I am inform'd Mr. PARKER intends to publish a Paper under the former Title; and 2d, because, as he formerly publish'd a Paper under that Title, I would not avail myself of any Advantages from a Name originally assumed by him. The Number, for the Sake of more easily settling with my Customers, will run regularly on from my last Week's Paper.
JOHN HOLT.

REEVE and PEMBERTON,
Masters of the Grammar School in Elizabeth-Town,
TAKE this Method to acquaint the Public, that they continue to teach the GREEK and LATIN Languages. A commodious House is provided in the Center of the Town, for the Accommodation of a large School: Gentlemen who incline to send their Sons, may depend upon their united diligent Care in qualifying them, for admission into any of our American Colleges. As the Art of reading and pronouncing the English Tongue, with propriety, is too much neglected in the first Rudiments of Education; they will devote part of their Attention to this essential Object, to promote this useful branch of Knowledge, it is proposed that generally once in a Month, the Lads shall publicly recite some select Pieces from the best English Authors; this it is imagined will excite a laudable Emulation to excel in the Art of delivery. Gentlemen of Education in the Town will visit the School; from whom it's Character may be known. The Terms of Admission are Five Pounds per Annum, and Twenty Shillings Entrance Money. Boarding may be had in reputable Families, at Twenty Pounds New-York Currency, per Annum.

To be sold the 20th of April next, at Public Sale on the Premises, or at private Sale any Time before;
THE House and Lot where the Printing-Office is now kept at the Exchange, being the same where the King's Arms Tavern was kept for many Years before. Inquire of the Subscriber, at his House in the Bowry-Lane.
NICHOLAS BAYARD.

At a COUNCIL held at Fort-George, in the City of New-York, on Wednesday the 11th Day of March, 1767.

Sir Henry Moore,

Baronet, Captain General, &c.

Mr. Horsmanden, Mr. Delancey,
Mr. Smith, Mr. Apthorpe,
Mr. Watts, Mr. Reade,
Mr. Walton,

THE Council having duly considered all the Proofs and Allegations offered on the Part of the Complainants, Daniel Nimham, and the other Indians of the Wappinger Tribe, in Support of their Claim to certain Lands, granted by Letters Patent, to Adolph Philipse, dated the Seventeenth of June, 1697; as likewise, the Proofs offered by Roger Morris, Beverley Robinson, and Philip Philipse, in Support of their Title, under the said Adolph Philipse; and after admitting every Kind of Proof, that could be offered by the Complainants.

UPON the whole Matter, His Excellency the Governor, and the Council, are unanimously of Opinion, and do declare, That the Indians now living, of the Wappinger Tribe, have no Right, Title, or Claim to the Lands granted as aforesaid, by Letters Patent to the said Adolph Philipse; that the original Indian Title thereto, hath been long since extinguished, by Purchases honestly and fairly made: That the Title to the said Lands, both in Law and Equity, is vested in the present Proprietors under the said Letters Patent, notwithstanding any Indian Claim whatever: And that the Complaint of the said Indians, to which they have been wholly excited by white Persons, with a View to Countenance and Support their own illegal Pretensions to the Lands, is vexatious and unjust, and as such ought to be, and is hereby accordingly dismissed.

To the Printer of the General Evening Post, &c.
S I R,

THERE can be no rational doubt entertained of Luxury's having been every-where the bane of Liberty, Virtue, Prosperity, and every blessing that can be greatly precious to a Community; as, wherever prevalent, it serves to make a people rapacious, profuse, wicked, worthless, trifling and insignificant. It introduces such practices as must and will undermine Order, Principle, Law, Justice, Religion, and even National Security. The wants of Luxury are boundless: and such as are so much of necessity create boundless pretensions, and set men upon the securing of supplies by all practicable means, whether good or bad; for where necessities are urgent, conscience must and will give way; and therefore it was the prayer of the Wise Man, to be kept from such temptations even to stealing, which practice can follow only the last debasement of the human mind and heart, yet public fraud and private cheating in a thousand ways, will become reconciled even to the honourable character, when a people are become luxurious; because the frequency of the practice will serve not only to deaden shame, but also to countenance transgression; till even a Minister of State will venture to proclaim that every man has his price: and that a man is a fool who is a whit honestier than the time in which he lives. But when such depravity becomes general, what will be the natural consequence, but unlimited pretensions, every species of fraud and rapine, impatience of discipline, greedy and partial selfishness, with the loss of all regard for the Community, extreme profligacy and desperation, and all the qualities and practices that, in their prevalence, must prognosticate the speedy approach of sure ruin to such a people?

It must be remembered, that the Minister alluded to above, made it his avowed system to rule by Corruption; and that, in order to increase Corruption, he was the promoter of Luxury; though it must at all times be the duty of Government, by its influence and authority, to check and restrain all kinds of those enormities of which Luxury is the parent. But whenever any representations were made of the excesses of growing Luxury, and the evils which they had a tendency to introduce, his constant reply was, that they were the natural effects of great wealth, derived from the flourishing state of Commerce, and too many of both Talkers and Writers embraced the same opinion; though when he paid such an indirect compliment to himself, by falsely attributing Luxury to the improvement of Trade, while he was at the helm, yet was it evidently owing to evil policy, much of our national Commerce being then on the decline; and as he could not but know, that there was not of the coins and precious metals sufficient in the kingdom, to pay the state debts to foreign creditors, and the paper of circulation and property; so that all our public influence stood on no better a bottom than paper money; which one strong stroke of adversity might have sunk to its intrinsic value, as paper, and all our public credit have burst as a bubble, as soon afterwards it had like to have done; while much of private Affluence and Luxury had their foundations in public burthens, interest of public debts, jobs, employments, gratuities, shameful perquisites, and pensions; that were all paid by taxes.

Thus were the foundations of the opulence of which he boasted, but imaginary and deceitful; yet on these he presumed to establish Luxury, ever baneful in its nature; and injuriously attributed the whole useful Commerce, which produces no other than solid riches, and tends to spread honest and beneficial industry on the land and the waters, contributing therein every way to the real power of the State, and the increase and felicity of mankind.

Intelligence received by the last Vessels from Europe.
L O N D O N, Dec. 23.

On Thursday last a man of Isleworth was convicted at Hicks's-hall for abandoning his wife and three children, and leaving them on the parish, and sentenced to be publicly whipt through the said town, and to suffer six months imprisonment in Clerkenwell Bridewell.

Friday morning the daughter of a Ship-chandler in Wapping hanged herself, on receiving an account that her sweet-heart had been drowned, coming home from the West-Indies.

A letter from Wales informs us of the dreadful inundation of the river Usk, the latter end of November, by which vast numbers of cattle of all kinds, stacks of hay, and ricks of corn, were washed away, and several Farmers thereby utterly ruined: the waters were up to the first stories of the houses. At Newcastle, in Cardiganshire, the bridge and three or four houses were intirely destroyed.

A letter from Wilmington, North-Carolina, mentions, that a valuable copper-mine has lately been discovered in that province.

Advice has been received that Gen. O'Hara, Governor of Senegambia, has erected a strong fort at Arguin, which effectually secures the gum trade from any future encroachments of the French.

Letters from Madrid advise, that the King of Spain has caused several suspected Jesuits to be arrested in that capital; but that the affair is managed with secrecy.

The Danish island of St. Thomas, in America, is nearly destroyed by an earthquake.

Dec. 25. Last Friday morning, a Chairman, living in King-street, St. James's, found in his chair a purse with 30 guineas and some silver in it, also a pocket-book with two lottery tickets, with several other papers and promissary notes, belonging to a lady whom he had carried about two o'clock the same morning from the above-street to Grosvenor-square: he went immediately to the lady, and delivered them to her, upon which she gave him a handsome reward for his honesty.

The same day, a lady being desirous of seeing the coffin of a relation, in the vault of a church, East of Tower-hill, to her surprise, found the nails, plate, and leaden coffin removed, and the bones remaining in the wooden coffin. Warrants are issued out against the Sexton, who absconded.

A few days ago the master of an inn, in Kent, having words with some of his customers, went up stairs, and loaded a fowling-piece, which he fired off, and shot away the hand of a gentleman's servant, and wounded another man so terribly that he is since dead; the offender is committed to Maidstone goal.

We are informed, that bills of exchange, to the value of 90,000l. sterl. have within these few days been remitted to Paris, on account of English gentlemen now in Paris.

Dec. 30. Last Sunday night there was a great disturbance at Mr. Whitefield's Tabernacle in Moorefields. It was said to be occasioned by a man's publicly charging himself, and declaring he had committed a murder; upon which a constable was sent for, who took the man into custody.

On Tuesday last about noon a hackney-coach, with a man and woman, stop at the Saracen's-head in Camomile-street, near Bishopsgate; the woman, on being taken out, was found to be dead; the Coachman, on being asked where he brought her from, said, that a gentleman in Cheap-side, or some other street, gave him a shilling to carry her to the Saracen's-head: in the hurry the Coachman, and the man who came with her in the coach, were suffered to get away; the woman was carried to the parish workhouse of Allhallows, London-wall, where she now lies to be owned: she is supposed to be about 30 years of age. Enquiry has been made at the Saracen's-head inn, and in the neighbourhood, but she is not known by any body there. She is a very black person, and has the appearance of a Jewess.

Sunday se'nnight the Ravenworth of Newcastle, Capt. Thomas Baker, on his passage from London, saw the wreck of a large ship, and soon after discovered the people upon her broadside; upon which he immediately brought his ship to, and hoisted out his boat, (the sea then being very high); at three times going they were all brought safe on board, being 23 in number, having lost only one boy, supposed to have been between decks when the ship overboard. She proved to be the York, of Whitby, Capt. Barnfather, from Narva for London, with masts, timber, and flax. The wreck afterwards came ashore, about a mile to the southward of Tynemouth bar. The humanity and fortitude of Capt. Baker in saving these people is greatly applauded: as it was attended with the utmost hazard and difficulty; and on Wednesday last, a handsome collection was made on change at Newcastle to reward the crew of the Ravenworth, and relieve the poor sufferers.

INTELLIGENCE EXTRAORDINARY.

By the union of the kingdoms of England and Scotland, no Scotch Peer, created an English one after that time, was to sit in the House of Lords; but the whole body of Scotch nobility were to elect 16 of their number to represent them, who, with some Scotch Peers, who were likewise English ones before that time, were thought equal to the weight they ought to have in the House of Lords; and two noble Dukes stand excluded at this day on that account.

But if a Scotch Peer's eldest son is created an English Peer in the life-time of his father, the fathers Scotch title devolving on him afterwards, doth not disqualify him from sitting as an English Peer, because he was so before he was a Scotch Peer.—O rare Cheat 'em!

Reading, Dec. 20. This day one of his Majesty's messengers arrived here with a respite (during his Majesty's pleasure) for the three rioters who were condemned at our assize, viz. John Cheer, Daniel Eeland, and William Stowers.

Last week about ten o'clock at night, was finished the felling of the famous ash at East-Newton, in this county; which tree is supposed the largest and finest in this kingdom by good judges. A great number of hands had been employed in the felling from Monday morning, Mr. Richard Darley, of Huthwaite, in this county, the purchaser, has delivered in the following account of it, viz. the length of the whole tree 28 yards; the length of the bole five yards; the root, as it is dug up, every way four yards; the girdle of the main brand 36 inches square; and each of the other brands 27 inches square. Total sound workable wood 14 tons; top wood, and broken wood, computed at seven loads.

PLYMOUTH, Dec. 30. We hear from Tamer-ton, that last week some gentlemen being out a fox-hunting, and the dogs making a full stop in a wood, the sportsmen thought the fox had been gone to ground; but to their great surprise, found the dog in bay to the skeleton of a woman the vermin having eaten most part of the flesh off her bones. It is thought she was one Mrs. Jones, wife of a Rug-weaver in this town, who has been seen wandering in a despairing condition in those woods for some months.

H A L I F A X, March 26.

We are informed that great Preparations are now making on the Coast, to pursue the Fishery this Year, with a fair Prospect of Success.

NEWPORT, MARCH 30.

The Sloop Sally, Capt. Knowles, bound from this Port to Charlestown, South-Carolina, run upon Ocracock Bar, on the Coast of North-Carolina, and entirely lost, with near all her Cargo, which was very valuable; by which Misfortune many Gentlemen in Town have sustained considerable Losses.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.

Postscript of a Letter from London, by the Packet, dated January 10, 1767.

"We had almost forgot to have acquainted you that on the 7th Current, a Meeting of North-American Merchants was summoned, who accordingly met, and chose a Committee, which Committee are to meet again on the 12th Current, in order to consider of, and form a proper Plan for the Circulation of Paper Currency in your different Provinces, and as we have very great Encouragement from the present Ministry, we have not the least doubt of obtaining our desired Point, which hope, and doubt not will be a very acceptable Piece of News to all our North-American Friends, as also very agreeable to Yours, &c."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London to another in Philadelphia, dated Jan. 10.

"These are intended by the Packet, to acquaint thee, for the Information of all our Correspondents, that a Committee of Merchants was chosen at a Public Meeting on the 7th Instant, to apply to Parliament for Relief in respect to your Paper Currency, with the Assistance of the Agents of the several Provinces, and such Gentlemen from your Continent as are now here. They meet the day after To-morrow, to receive, and consider, several Plans which it is said will be offered for this Purpose, which with their opinion, they are to report to a General Meeting; and as the present Ministry are favourably disposed towards the Measure, we doubt not but something will be done this Session, and we shall as soon as in our Power, advise the Success. We have also to desire thou wilt, in general, inform our Friends, that the Ship Dispatch, Capt. Coldstream, will be ready to depart in three or four Days after the Weather breaks up, which at present is so severe by a heavy fall of Snow, that the Navigation of our River is stagnated."

Extract of another Letter from London, dated January 12, 1767.

"Your Agents have been for some Time much engaged in promoting the Repeal of the Paper Money Act. They have had several Meetings with a Committee of Merchants on the Subject, and have no doubt but they will succeed in obtaining the Repeal, under the following Restrictions, viz. That the Bills of Credit to be made in future, shall not be legal Tender in any Debts payable in Europe—in Debts already subsisting—or in special Contracts to be paid in a Silver Currency."

NEW-YORK, April 9.

Thursday last a Soldier belonging to the 46th, was detected in carrying away from Mr. William Neelson's Cellar, Two Bladders of Snuff, which he stuffed into a large Pocket, in the middle of the Day. He was committed to Prison.

Wednesday last, John Dunn, of this City, and his Son a Lad about 14 Years old, went to fetch Oysters in a small Schooner; but the same Evening, in Rockaway Bay, the Craft sunk down, and as the old Man could not swim, he was drowned; but the Lad was soon taken up by a Pettyauger in Sight.

We are credibly informed that the Man called Stephen Porter, who murdered Capt. Wescott, of Liverpool, as mentioned in our last, arrived here from the Grenades in a Sloop commanded by Roger Richards, about 9 Months ago, and known to be flush of Money, and very possible has bent his Course towards Virginia, in Expectation of meeting with Whaypon, another Seaman concerned in said Murder, who was born in said Province: Porter was born at Bristol, in England, is a stout lusty Man, of a swarthy Complexion, about 34 Years old, and wore his own Hair.

On Friday Night, March 21st, the Sloop Betsey, Thomas Splane, Master, from Guadaloupe, was drove ashore on the back of Long-Island Beach, in a violent Gale of Wind, at E. S. E. the Crew with much difficulty sav'd their Lives, and a Negro Man, a Passenger, died with the extremity of the Cold, soon after he got ashore. The Vessel and Cargo were entirely lost, except about three Hogheads of Molasses, the Anchors, Cables, part of the Rigging, &c. which were put on board an Oyster Boat, belonging to Elizabeth-Town, in order to be brought to New-York, and sold for the Benefit of the Crew, the Boatman drawing one half for his Trouble. But we are informed he carried the whole to Elizabeth-Town.

The Snow Amelia, Capt. Sinclair, of this Place, is arrived in London after a short Passage.

The Sale of the Lots of Ground, advertised in this Days Supplement, by John and Susannah Marshall, is put off till the 15th Instant.

Ecce iterum Crispinus—Juvenal.

To the P U B L I C.

AS Quackery and Noftrums are so much in Vogue amongst the Inhabitants of North-America, the Subject of this Piece shall be totally devoted to that useful and salutary Method of Practice, according to the Words of an experienced Practitioner whom I heard lately say, that he would not take any Money to discover a Noftrum of his, tho' at the same Time, this Gentleman has been regularly bred, i. e. has gotten a Diploma.—Such is the Force of Quackery!

Now, as it is very well known amongst Men of the meanest Capacity, that the very Medicine that is of Service one Day, in almost every Complaint, may be destructive the next; it is surprising, how any Physician, or indeed any Man of common Sense, can be so far bias'd, as to take, or in Respect to the Physician, to prescribe, any Medicine that he neither knows the Virtues, or Composition of; but how powerful art thou, Prejudice! Ignorance, how great is thy Sway! Every Apothecary's Shop that I come to, is wainscotted, by Daffy's Elixir, James's Powder, Godfrey's Cordial, &c. Bofem the very Soul of Esculapius, that can even raise the Dead! Have ever any of these eminent Medicines perform'd a Cure, but has been either effected by Nature, or long Abstinence?—This must be acknowledged, if Truth takes place; then should not every Soul that regards his own Preservation, explode these slow Poisons, as well as detest their Venders? Any Enemy that openly kills, is not half so bad as a secret Knave, that kills privately and for Lucre; a Mind fixed upon Gain, so as to become destructive to its Fellow-Creatures, ought (I think) to be discarded and detested by Society.—For what can we call him but a private Murderer, and the worst of Villains.—Be prudent therefore in Respect to your Health, North-Americans, as ye are brave in vindicating your Liberty; consult Men of Reason and Experience, when disorder'd, and Age will become pleasant instead of a Burden to you.

Query, Has a Diploma Doctor, any Right to make up Medicines? If he kills, as he sometimes does, how is he accountable for it?

TEAGUE.

To be sold at public Vendue, any Day, at the Merchant's Coffee-House, in New-York, Mineral Doctors Brains, the Scarf-Man's Skull, Bean-Belly's Chemistry, Doctor Blasphemy's Hypocritical Doctrine, and Doctor Kidney Fistula's Emblem of Consultation.

Newport, March 10, 1767.
To AMERICANIOR, in New-York.

SIR,
I AM much pleased with your Thermometrical Observations, published in the New-York Journal, and hope you will continue them. The Philadelphia Gentleman's Observations, unless he for the Future should make them abroad, must be as useless to the philosophic World, as those made by Dr. Sinollet, while he was in Italy: To what Purpose is it to know how warm a Gentleman keeps his Apartment in Italy, or Philadelphia? The Temperature of the external Air, Summer and Winter, is the Thing we want to investigate, for every Climate on this Side the Atlantic; which, different from the European side, will I believe, be found to correspond more nearly with the Chinese Maritime Temperature; as I judge the Californian and European Littoral Temperatures correspond.
In a Globe like ours, penetrated with Meridional Seas or Oceans, I suppose the Eastern Shores of Continents differ from the Western, as to Warmth or Cold in corresponding Lattudes. A series of septennary Observations at C. Mendocino and Boston, Lima and St. Salvador, Oporto and Pekin, Gambia and Babelmandel, Morocco and Nanking, Goa and Sec. Golconde Coast, Labradore Coast and Britains, &c. &c. might evince this difference of Climates as to Heat and Cold, on the East and West Sides of Oceans.

I should be obliged to you, if you would please to verify the freezing Point on your Thermometer, by applying new fallen Snow to the Bulb, so as to cover it some depth, and mark the Degree at which the σ stands. I have repeated this Trial on mine, and always found σ stand at 32. But the Trial must be made when the external Air is warmer than freezing, else it will not indicate the true Point or Degree of Water freezing. I found the σ in another Fahr. Therm.
stand at 35. Snow is susceptible of a greater degree of Cold than 32, or Water freezing, but not less; for the Moment it passes that Limit, a Dissolution commences. To verify 32, therefore it is best to take Snow on which the Sun has shone for several Hours, or that which is newly fallen when the external Air is, &c. RHODIENSES.

Oblige me with an Answer sent to Mr. Hall. As Mr. Hall will be so good as to deliver this to Americanior, so he will forward a Reply to Mr. Hall of Newport.

street, next door to Messrs. Thompson's and Selbey's, saddlers, near the coffee-house, where he continues to carry on the cutlery business, in various branches, viz.—New works of various sorts, surgeons instruments of all sorts, ground, glazed, polished and set—swords, pistols, guns, &c.
cleaned and polished, silver-smith's, brasser's and tinnmen's streaks, shears and hammers, ground and polished; taylor's, glovers, and all other shears; chopping knives, saddlers, shoe-makers and butchers knives; fleames razors, scissars, pen-knives, (and many other things too tedious to mention) ground and finished in a neat manner.

N. B. Said SAUSE embraces this opportunity of returning thanks to the public for their many favours, and hopes by his care and assiduity for a continuance of the same. 66 69

I Do hereby solemnly declare, that I did not sell, nor send from our store, any goods in carts or otherwise, to any of my friends or creditors, all the time or any part of the time, from Saturday the 10th, until Wednesday the 13th of November; the day Mr. Shaw says, we stop payment: nor do I find any goods entered in the books, sent from the store at that time worth notice, excepting a pipe of wine £ 65 currency, and £ 77 sterling in dry goods, sold at 11s. and a half advance, by Mr. Shaw himself, to Mr. Walter Buchanan, the 11th of November; and 13 dozen bottles, and 4 pipes Madeira wine, sent by Mr. Shaw also, to Mr. Anthony Vandam, November 22d. on account of Messrs. Betencourt and Donaldson, and to the above gentlemen I refer to any persons who will give themselves the trouble to inquire into the truth of this matter. I also declare to the best of my knowledge, that on the 30th day of May, 1764, I went from New-York to Sandyhook, and did not return till the 5th or 6th of July, and stay'd in town but a few days, and was call'd to the Hook again, went to sea, and did not return to New-York till the 29th of July; which can be proved by many gentlemen in town, and the Pilots that were along with me: This was the time Mr. Shaw sold the furs sent to our care by Messrs. Duncan and Phyn, to be ship'd to London, on their account. I farther declare I never consulted with, nor ever was consulted by Mr. Shaw, about the sale, or selling of any such furs; nor did I know of any furs being sent to our care to be ship'd to London, on those gentlemen's accounts, till the latter end of August, or the beginning of September, that Mr. James Phyn came to town from Schenectady; and inform'd me of it.

Sworn before me New-York,
the 7th. day of April, 1767.

GEO. BREWERTON, Justice of the Peace.

We the subscribers being constantly in company, and most of us eat, drank and sleep in the same room, with Captain John Alexander, during his late confinement: We declare, we never heard him say that he would instantly sink into Hell with pleasure, was he sure David Shaw, would follow him there, neither do we believe, Mr. Shaw heard him say any such words as they were never seen nor heard speak together all the time of Mr. Alexander's confinement. Witness our hands, New-York, April the 4th. 1767.

New-York, April 8, 1767.

Mr. John Alexander, Sir, We have yours of this date, in answer to which, say thus, that we bought them goods from David Shaw, and of him only, nor had we any goods in that month but what we bought of him.

We are your most humble servants,
WALTER and THOMAS BUCHANAN.

In David Shaw's letter to all the creditors, of John Alexander and company, March, 1767. I shall only take notice, of the 4th paragraph, page 15, where he says,—“as can be proved by the company's books, and sundry of the neighbours” I only answer, that I sincerely wish all the losses the company has sustain'd, from the first to last, could be proved by the company's books,—and for what can be proved by the neighbours, while they abide by truth, as I believe there is hardly any of them that will depart from it, either from partiality or prejudice; I am conscious to myself, they can say nothing that will hurt either my character or credit; so I shall take no farther notice of him, or his scandalous and infamous letter, till I can bring him face to face before some gentlemen of character, to whom I shall leave the determination of all disputes between him and me; which is all I ever wanted, and long wished for, and he as long refused and evaded to the great loss of our creditors, and hinderance to the settlement of our unfortunate affairs, for every one concerned but himself: I am not yet clear of my fears, that he will endeavour all he can to find out some plan to embarrass us still farther, on purpose to avoid the difficulties he knows he must encounter.
But that our assignees will, with the rest of our creditors, take such steps as will prevent any more attempts of that kind, is the sincere wish of their most obedient, humble servant, 66-69 JOHN ALEXANDER.

twentieth part of our national creditors, (while we at least may be supposed to have a fourth part of them foreigners) and at the same time to answer all circulating paper and paper property, such as Exchange bills, India Bonds, &c. yet it is on such ideal property that all our rack-rents, high rates of the products of lands, and all other necessities, as well as superfluities, and our whole national Luxury, stand at present; which is surely but a false bottom. Such kinds of shadowy riches are not the returns of Trade, but the fictions of State-craft, for the serving of delusive purposes; but having a tendency to injure and destroy commerce, that will no sooner be done, than they must, by the burst of a bubble, become nothing but air; and then where will be Luxury? and what the value of Lands?

The Dutch assert, there is such a solid treasure stored up in their Bank, as is sufficient to support and answer the whole of its operations, which if true, their credit may indeed be said to stand upon a firm basis; but it would be folly to say as much of our public credit of all kinds; but no one can deny, that it would be right to put it on such a footing, because till that is done, we must be so far, as a nation, from being in prosperous circumstances, that it may be said we are in continual danger of bankruptcy and ruin.

All profusion then in the State, and all luxury in Individuals, ought entirely to be discountenanced, because there can be no just pretence for such indulgence to either. Let us then hope, that all high influence and example will be directed to those great points, in order to enable us to get rid of our burthenome debts, and all the fatal effects of them.

Happy would it be, if we could wisely bring ourselves to consider all luxury to be as much guilt as it certainly is folly; because it tends in no shape to promote the real happiness of life in any, while it is the cause of continually bringing thousands into difficulties, nay to ruin and misery, and it is the great source of iniquity and mischief throughout the whole kingdom. Could we but resolve to quit giddy and unsatisfactory pleasure, for serious and solid happiness: it would be equally beneficial to us as a Community and Individuals; for till we do so, our enjoyments, security and affluence will be alike on a precarious footing.

The SUBSCRIBER

PURPOSES to open a Morning and Evening School, for the Instruction of Youth in Writing and Arithmetic; to commence the first of April next, and continue to the first of October following.—Attendance will be given from six to eight in the Morning, and from five to seven in the Evening precisely.—It is imagined that this Plan may suit some of both Sexes, who attend other Places of Education at different Periods, for other Purposes.—Whoever is pleased to favour this Scheme, may depend on being served with Fidelity as there will be no Deeds, Bills, Bonds, &c. or any Kind of Writing done, but such as will have a direct Tendency to promote the general Good of the School; which has constantly been the principal View of the Instructor, and on which he cannot but have rejected every Thing that he thought would be incompatible with the Duty of a Teacher.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL,
OR GENERAL ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY, APRIL 9, 1767. [NUMB. 1266.]

LONDON, January 10.

LETTERS from Warsaw advise, that the Dyet has taken the following resolution on the subject of the Declarations remitted from the Courts of Russia, Prussia, England and Denmark, in favour of the Protestants.

"WE have received, with all possible consideration, the Declarations which the Ambassador of her Imperial Majesty of all the Russias the Prince de Repnin, the Minister-Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the King of Prussia M. Benoit, the English Minister Mr. Wroughton, and the Danish Minister M. de Saint-Saphorin, have presented in writing, on the part of their respective Sovereigns, in favour of the Greeks and Dissidents in the kingdom of Poland and Great-Dutchy of Lithuania. We assure those Ministers that we will fully maintain the said Dissidents in all the rights and prerogatives to which they are entitled by the laws of the country, particularly by the constitution of the year 1717, &c. and by treaties.

"As to the griefs of the Dissidents in respect to the exercise of their religion, the College of the Most Reverend Archbishops and Bishops, under the direction of the Prince Primate, will endeavour to remove those difficulties in a manner conformable to justice and neighbourly-love. The regulation drawn up on this subject shall be inserted in the acts of the Metrique, and from thence communicated to all those who shall require it.

"We charge the Chancellors of the two nations to report this resolution to the Ambassadors and Ministers of the Courts above-mentioned."

We hear from Exeter, that by the importation of some thousand quarters of foreign wheat, corn had fallen last market day to 4s. 3d. per bushel.

By a letter from Dublin, we learn, that Capt. Lockhart, of the Ferret cutter, in his passage lately from the Isle of Man to Dublin, observing the body of a woman floating on the sea, and thinking it might be the corpse of the unfortunate wife or daughter of the late General Stanwix, ordered it to be taken on board, and carried it into Dublin; but the body was so much disfigured and swollen, that it could not be certainly known.

Yesterday the wild man, well known by the name of Peter, that was taken in a wood in Hanover about forty years ago, and brought over to England, since which he has been kept at Cheshunt in Hertfordshire, supported by an annual stipend allowed, was brought from thence to the Queen's Palace, to be seen by the Royal Family: he is supposed now to be upwards of sixty years of age, cannot speak any thing intelligibly, and still retains his wild appearance.

It has recently been discovered, that both the French and Dutch have, for two years past, sent a number of officers, mathematicians, and engineers, into the service of the Great Mogul. This is affirmed to be a fact; and when the Eastern troops have made themselves masters of the great arts of war discipline, fortification, and gunnery, the consequences to us may be very easily foreseen!

Edinburgh, Jan. 3. A couple have been married here within these few days, whose adventure makes a good deal of noise. A gentleman of fortune in London was in love with a young lady under age, whose father would not consent to their marriage, and it was at length agreed between the parties, that the gentlemen's valet-de-chambre should carry off the young lady in a post-chaise, which was to be met a few miles out of town by her lover. By some accident he missed of the post-chaise, and the young lady, as well as her conductor (who by this time became her most ardent lover) thinking it no way advisable she should return without their errand, she was persuaded to accept of his hand instead of his master's. The marriage has been accordingly solemnized: but the most singular part of the history is, that the young lady's father is likely to be reconciled to the match, as the bridegroom turns out to be a young man of some family and good morals.

TO BE SOLD,

A Plantation very well improved, containing 312 acres of good land, deemed to be some of the best in the parts, well watered, timbered and fenced; lying at a place called Squamco, in the township of Shrewsbury, and the county of Monmouth, New-Jersey; the up lands afford good pasture, as well as grain of all sorts peculiar to the climate; the meadows abound with grass of all the kinds for fodder, and in season may be cut thereon enough to winter one hundred head of cattle, whilst more may be improved to the same advantage; (to this may be added the benefit of thousands of acres of land, and meadows for summer range, which it is likely will not be improved in one century.) On it is a saw mill with two saws, seated on one of the best and most plentiful streams in the province, which never fails in the greatest drought, to which may be easily added, a grist or fulling mill or both, as there is plenty of water, in a growing part of the country, which increases its inhabitants; lands daily rising in value, and huntsman's toil paid with the best of venison, wild turkeys and other game. It is conveniently seated for a shop-keeper, as there is none within 10 miles to supply a thick settled and growing part of the country. On the same is two tenements, besides a mill house for the sawyer, a good large barn, a bearing young orchard yielding 10 barrels of cyder, from the best of grafted fruit, with a variety of other fruit trees. For further particulars enquire of Doctor Richard Stillwell in Middletown, or the Subscriber, living on the premises, by whom a good and indisputable title will be given or made to any purchaser.
